INTRODUCTION

Preparing for CELBAN means reflecting on and practicing how nurses communicate in Canada. Unlike other high stakes language proficiency exams, which may move you away from your occupation-specific subject area, CELBAN grounds you in healthcare – your area of expertise.

This manual outlines important information and will help prepare you for CELBAN.

Overview

---

CELBAN is an English language proficiency exam designed for internationally educated nurses (IENs) that is recognized by Canadian nursing regulators. Assessment tasks in CELBAN are informed by an analysis of the language demands of the nursing profession in Canada and replicate authentic communication tasks nurses use routinely.

CELBAN assesses four language skill areas:

- Speaking
- Listening
- Writing
- Reading

The Speaking Test takes place separately with two trained assessors. The Listening, Writing, and Reading sections take place in a group setting, referred to as the Group Test.

What to Expect on Test Day

Once you register for CELBAN through our online portal, you will receive a confirmation email that lists the date and time for your Group Test and your Speaking Test. Pay close attention to the dates and times in this email confirmation. Print it and take it with you on test day as this confirmation email is required when you sign in for your test.

Identification Requirements

On the day of the test, you will be required to provide two pieces of identification. Your primary identification must be one of the following pieces of photo identification:

- Passport
- Permanent Resident/Citizenship Card
- Driver's License

You will also be asked to present a second piece of identification to confirm your name. The second ID does not have to have your picture, but it must have your signature. This second ID can be one of the above or another official identification such as:

- Health Card
- Credit Card
- Student Card

The names on your pieces of identification must match exactly with each other and with the names on the confirmation letter (including spelling). If your names and your photo do not match the identification documents that you present on test day, you will not be allowed to complete the test.

Signing In

You must sign in at the test site 30 minutes before your scheduled test time. When you sign in, you will be asked to present your identification and confirmation email. You will be required to sign in before your Group Test and again before your Speaking Test.

Bags, coats, purses, and electronic devices (cell phones, MP3 players, recorders, dictionaries, pagers, etc.) are not permitted in the testing rooms. Each test site offers a secure area where you can leave your personal belongings. Neither the test site nor The CELBAN Centre are responsible for stolen items. We encourage you to leave valuable personal items at home on the day of your test.

Please note that pencils and erasers are provided for you in the testing room. You will not be permitted to bring any pens, pencils, erasers, or other personal belongings into the room with you.

Signing Out

You are required to sign out after your Group Test and again after your Speaking Test. You are not required to stay at the test site between your scheduled test times. If you choose to leave the test site, please ensure you arrive back 30 minutes before your next scheduled test time to sign-in again.

SPEAKING

---

During the speaking test, you will interact face-to-face with two CELBAN speaking assessors. The speaking assessment lasts 20-30 minutes and is recorded for future reference to verify your score, if needed.

The speaking test has four different types of spoken interactions:

- Opening and introductory questions about familiar, every day topics
- Role plays with nursing scenarios and/or nursing-related topics
- Discussion questions about concepts, ideas, and opinions
- Conclusion

During the question portions of the test, one assessor will be conversing with you while the other will be taking notes. During the role plays, one of the assessors will take on the role of a patient or a nurse, and test takers will assume a nurse role.

Throughout the speaking test, including the role plays, only your language skills are being assessed, not your clinical skills. Communicate your intent and meaning in a clear and purposeful way. Do not worry about making mistakes in medical knowledge. In this interview, your language proficiency is being assessed, not your medical knowledge. However, correct and accurate non-technical, nursing-related vocabulary is required to get a high score.

Speaking Tasks

During the test, you will be asked to perform any of the following speaking tasks:

- Talk about a personal experience or story
- Offer suggestions and advice
- Describe or compare
- Respond to questions, comments, and concerns
- Ask for information
- Give instructions or educate
- Encourage, motivate, and persuade
- Discuss an issue and give/support an opinion
- Explain a problem, and propose solutions

Speaking Role Plays

Role plays are designed to elicit the type of language that may be required in a professional nursing context.

For a successful interaction, note the following communication strategies listed below:

- Establish rapport and engage the role player.

- Use appropriate tone, level of formality, and vocabulary for the situation.
- Ask for clarification (ask further questions) to make sure you understand.
- Explain the reasons for your questions and instructions.
- Support any suggestions or directions with a rationale.
- Don't be afraid to correct yourself.
- Be empathetic, but firm.
- Acknowledge the person to whom you are speaking.

Speaking Rating Criteria

The criteria listed below are used to rate your speaking. Consider these criteria when practicing for the test.

|------------------------------------|--|
| Communication               | Are you able to express your ideas and opinions clearly so that others can follow your thoughts?   |
| Intelligibility             | Is your pronunciation clear? How about stress and intonation of your sentences?Do other people usually understand your speech without much effort?   |
| Grammar                     | Is the language you use grammatically accurate?Do you use sentences that are short and simple, or long and complex?  |
| Vocabulary                  | Do you use appropriate and accurate vocabulary to discuss different topics?Is your vocabulary basic (you can talk about everyday, familiar topics) or more advanced (you can talk about concepts, ideas, and other abstract topics)? |
| Fluency                     | How much do you hesitate and pause when you are speaking?Is the tempo of your speech fairly even?  |
| Organization &amp; Cohesion | Do you present your main ideas and clearly support them with a rationale and/or evidence?Do you introduce and conclude topics appropriately, and use connecting words and phrases to connect your ideas?                             |
| Initiative                  | Are you able to take initiative for an interaction with some confidence?Do you have the language skills to help you take initiative and engage confidently?  |
| Strategies                  | Do you apply communication strategies to help you communicate effectively?   |

WRITING

Overview

---

The Writing Test includes two different tasks and takes 45 minutes to complete. You will receive a writing test booklet with instructions and space for you to write your response.

Task A

- Descriptive writing, based on the information provided
- You will use complete sentences in paragraph form

Task B

- Express an opinion, based on the information provided
- You will use complete sentences in paragraph form

Writing Rating Criteria

The criteria listed below are used to rate your writing. You can use these criteria to self-assess your writing.

Tasks A & B

|---|---|
| Task Purpose                     | Does your written response meet the task requirements?Did you effectively describe (Task 1) and express an opinion (Task 2)?  |
| Content &amp; Organization       | Is the writing organized in a way that makes it easy for the reader to understand the incident and recognize your opinions?Have you used cohesive devices to connect the various ideas and parts of the text? |
| Grammatical Structures           | Are you able to use a variety of sentence structures, both simple and complex?Are the words and phrases placed accurately according to grammatical rules so your written message is clearly understood?       |
| Vocabulary, Word Forms and Usage | Are you able to use a variety of general and health-related vocabulary?Did you choose the right word based on meaning? Did you use the right word form (i.e. noun, adjective, gerund, etc.)?                  |
| Overall Impression and Fluency   | Does your writing have a flow that makes it easy for the reader to read along, follow, and understand your meaning?   |

LISTENING

---

The Listening Test consists of a series of audio and video clips with multiple choice questions. It takes 60 minutes to complete. You will receive a test booklet in which you will record all of your answers. Before the test begins, there is an example video clip and example questions to practice. All the instructions are heard on the video, and are also written in the test booklet. Answers can be marked as soon as you hear them. Marks are not deducted for incorrect responses.

Listening scenarios are only played once. Be sure to:

- Pre-read questions before viewing/listening to the scenarios.
- Mark answers in your test booklet as soon as you hear the information needed. You will view the video, read the questions, and select your answers at the same time.
- Use the dedicated time at the end of each scenario to check your answers. Do not use the time allotted for pre-reading the next task's questions.

READING

Overview

---

The Reading Test consists of a series of health related text passages, each followed by multiple choice questions. It takes 60 minutes to complete. Texts include charts, patient notes, manuals, and short articles related to health issues.

You will also complete a Cloze exercise (fill in the blanks) with multiple choice options.

RESULTS

Reports

After you take the CELBAN, two reports will be generated:

1) Unofficial Score Report (for test takers)

This report will be sent to you by email. Your Unofficial Score Report includes your test scores and a description of your strengths and weaknesses for speaking and writing.

2) Official Test Results (for institutions)

These results will be sent to the licensing body or institution you requested on your registration form. This report contains your test results only. It does not include a description of your strengths and weaknesses.

Additional Reports

To receive additional reports, visit the CELBAN Centre website and complete a request form. There is a fee for each additional report requested.

Understanding your Test Scores

Speaking and Writing

In CELBAN Speaking there are eight criteria used in scoring. Two assessors independently assign a CLB level for each criteria, and a conversion process is applied to arrive at a final overall CLB.

In CELBAN Writing, there are five criteria used in scoring each task. Once each task is rated, the scores for each criterion are added up and a conversion process is applied to arrive at a final overall CLB.

Listening and Reading

In CELBAN Reading and Listening, test items answered correctly are added up to determine a raw score. A conversion process is then applied to arrive at a final overall CLB.

Regulatory Requirements

In Canada, language proficiency requirements for nursing practice are established by nursing regulatory bodies. The minimum scores required for registration are set by Canadian Nursing Regulators and are as follows:

- Listening: CLB 10
- Speaking: CLB 8
- Reading: CLB 8
- Writing: CLB 7

CELBAN and the Canadian Language Benchmarks (CLB)

CELBAN test results are related to the CLB scale, which is described in the document Canadian Language Benchmarks: English as a Second Language for Adults.

There are 12 CLB levels, and CELBAN test results reflect levels 6 to 10 for Listening and Reading, and levels p6 to 9 for Speaking and Writing.

| Stage I Basic Ability |       |       |       | Stage II Intermediate Ability |       |       |       | Stage III Advanced Ability |        |        |        |
|-----------------------|-------|-------|-------|-------------------------------|-------|-------|-------|----------------------------|--------|--------|--------|
| CLB 1                 | CLB 2 | CLB 3 | CLB 4 | CLB 5                         | CLB 6 | CLB 7 | CLB 8 | CLB 9                      | CLB 10 | CLB 11 | CLB 12 |

The Meaning of a CELBAN Test Result

The charts below describe abilities associated with CELBAN test results for each of the four language skills. Many people get a different score for each skill, as it is normal to be stronger in some aspects of communication and weaker in others.
